The "4th International Conference: Constructive Mathematical Analysis" (ICCMA-2026) is a premier activity of the journal Constructive Mathematical Analysis. The first two series of this event were organized as workshops (IWCMA), and following the requests from international researchers, the event evolved into a conference series. The 3rd ICCMA held in present mode last year with more than 200 participants from more than 30 different countries.

The main goal of this conference is to promote, encourage, and provide a forum for the academic exchange of ideas and recent research works on any field of Analysis and Function Theory. The conference will present new results and future challenges, in a series of keynote lectures and contributed short talks.

This year, the conference will be held entirely online. This virtual format allows us to bring together a truly global community of researchers without travel constraints. While the event is hosted virtually, it is organized in the support of Selçuk University (Konya, Türkiye).

The conference will host the following special sessions:
S1: A life dedicated to approximation theory: 75th birthday of Prof. Ioan Raşa
Session Chair: Michele Campiti
S2: Approximation by exponential sampling series
Session Chair: Tuncer Acar
S3: Operator Theory in the description of Orthogonal Polynomials
Session Chair: Clemente Cesarano

The presentation language is English and the abstracts must be prepared according to Latex Template with the instructions which are available at conference webpage. The all submissions will be peer-reviewed by at least two referees and the submissions which are accepted will be allowed to be presented. The selected papers presented in ICCMA will be published in the special issues of the conference journals.

Moreover, after evaluation process by the scientific committee of the conference, accepted full-text proceedings will be published in "2026 Proceedings of 4th International Conference on Constructive Mathematical Analysis" (ISBN: 978-625-93137-0-2) and this book will be published after the conference is over.
